For the last few days Aisha had been unwell. She stayed home from school. She was starting to feel better, but her mom insisted that she stay in bed for another few days so that she could get better with the help of good food and lots of rest.

Aisha was very bored. She didn't feel like eating. She hated taking her pills. She spent her time watching people passing in front of her house.

She also talked a lot to her parents and read books.

One afternoon Aisha had a nice surprise. Her teacher came to visit! She kissed Aisha on her forehead and asked how she was.

This really cheered her up.
