MRS. POLITE

Once upon a time, there was a very beautiful house in the forest. Mrs. Polite the squirrel lived in this house.

Mrs. Polite loved to entertain guests. Frequently she invited guests over to her house. Mrs. Polite and her guests chatted and shared their problems and joys.

One day, once again guests were coming to visit Mrs. Polite. Mrs. Polite woke up early in the morning and cleaned her house. She fluffed the cushions, she shook the carpets.

Then she went to the kitchen. She baked delicious cookies and cakes from the fruits and nuts she had collected. Then everything was ready.

Then thunder shook the sky. Mrs. Polite ran to the balcony. The sky was filled with black clouds. She said to herself, "Oh no! I guess it will rain." She was sad that her guests were going to get wet.

Her neighbor Mrs. Jovial was also looking out the window. When she saw Mrs. Polite she said, “Mrs. Polite, how are you? You look like you are in a hurry. Do you have guests coming over?” She asked.
