LOST YUMYUM

It was getting dark. The crickets were chirping. The moon was shining bright in the sky. Yumyum was watching the stars from his bedroom window.

Then he looked towards the house across the way. The lights of the neighbors who had moved in that day were on. His mother met the new neighbors. She said, "The Zebra family has a very nice child. Her name is Zizi. Tomorrow you may meet her."

While Yummy was thinking about this, his father called him,

"Yummy! It's bed time!"

Yummyum was a good-hearted, lovely child. But he had some bad habits that he needed to change. He did not listen carefully to what people told him or pay enough attention to his surroundings. Everyone complained about this.

The next day his mother and Yummy went to the market. Yummy liked pushing the shopping cart. He and his mother filled the cart with the various fruits and vegetables that they bought. On the way back from shopping, they ran into Ponpon and his mother.

While the mothers were talking to each other, Ponpon asked;

“How are you, Yummy?”

Yummy was lost in looking at the sea. When Yummy didn't answer him, Ponpon said,

“You are very lost again Yummy.”
