Dear Parents and Teachers:

It is very important to familiarize our children with the concept of faith at an early age in hopes that it will give meaning to their lives as they grow into adults. It is for this reason that we have prepared the "I'm Learning Allah's Names" series. We have endeavored to open a window on the Beautiful Names of Allah at a child's level through the adventures of the animal heroes. On the last page of this book you will find information on how we seek to explain the particular Beautiful Name of Allah in this book and under the section entitled "Explain and Ask" you will find questions directed to help children better understand the Name which is the subject of the story.

I AM AN ELEPHANT

We elephants live in herds. The eldest mothers in our herds are our leaders. We have huge ears and long trunks. We use our trunks just like you use your hands. We can carry whatever we like with our trunks. We can also drink up water in an instant. Slurp! Slurp! Sometimes we spray each other when we want to play.

We elephants use our huge ears like fans. We cool ourselves by waving them.

We are the biggest land animals on earth. We are famous for our strong memories. We never forget those who are kind to us!

Summer had come. The weather was nice and warm. The jungle animals enjoyed the fine weather.

The antelope stepped into the river to cool off. The deer were napping in the shade of the trees. The giraffes stretched their long necks on the ground. They were trying to digest the grass they had eaten.

All of the animals thanked Allah. It was He who gave them these good things without asking for anything in return.

Suddenly, a big dust cloud appeared in the distance. Loud sounds came from inside of the dust cloud. Boom! Boom!

The dust cloud got closer and closer. The antelope anxiously came out of the river. The deer jumped up from their nap. The giraffes stretched their long necks and tried to see what was making all the noise.

"What caused this dust cloud?" they all thought.
