Dear Parents and Teachers:

It is very important to familiarize our children with the concept of faith at an early age in hopes that it will give meaning to their lives as they grow into adults. It is for this reason that we have prepared the "I'm Learning Allah's Names" series. We have endeavored to open a window on the Beautiful Names of Allah at a child's level through the adventures of the animal heroes. On the last page of this book you will find information on how we seek to explain the particular Beautiful Name of Allah in this book and under the section entitled "Explain and Ask" you will find questions directed to help children better understand the Name which is the subject of the story.

I am a Zebra!

We zebras look a little bit like horses and a little bit like donkeys. However, there are certainly things that make us different from them too! The most important one is the design we have on our hides. Allah gave each of us zebras our own special stripe designs. No two zebra has the same style of stripes. These stripes make it hard for other animals to catch us. They make it easier for us to run away from their claws.

We Zebras like to eat grass and fruit. We live in herds and we travel to places where there is lots of rain. When we grow up we have our own families, but we never leave our herd.

Spring displayed itself in all of its beauty. The sun shone brightly on the mountains, the valleys and the trees. Sweet-smelling daisies and lilies decorated the earth. All of the animals were taking pleasure in this lovely day. They enjoyed it together.

The giraffes were breathing in the scent of the blue, pink and red flowers. Sniff! Sniff! These flowers were budding on the branches and they were thanking Allah that they lived in such a lovely jungle.

Zoey the Zebra skipped through the jungle. She was singing a song,
"Elms, oaks and chestnut trees,
Clouds hang high above the leaves.

If it happens that you come here,
You are sure to forget your fear."

As she was prancing through the jungle Zoey suddenly caught her head in a spider web. She wanted to stop but it was too late. Zoey tried to get free from the web by shaking her head.
